MOJOFLO is old school funk and soul with a side of hip-hop. A band with a powerful presence, and an even more powerful front-woman to lead the charge.

"Marked by blazing horns, funky bass lines and a front-woman with sizzling pipes...old school swagger mixed with contemporary cool!"

- Columbus Dispatch

"My daughter's wedding reception was beyond our wildest expectations. Thanks to MoJoFlo who practically brought the place to it's knees. I stopped counting the number of people who said they thought they are the best group they ever heard. They made our wedding reception and I heartily recommend MoJoFlo to anyone wanting to throw a party to remember."

"We could not believe how fabulous MojoFlo was. Their energy was infectious. Guests of all generations got out there and danced all night. And they are such great people too, very accommodating."
